The Vincent Condominiums Wins Gold at The National Association of Home Builders

The Vincent, a new condominium coming to the Vaughan Metropolitan Centre (VMC) won an award recently from the National Association of Home Builders. The National Sales and Marketing Awards Gala (known as "The Nationals") recognizes outstanding achievement in the American and Canadian homebuilding industry.

The award was presented during the International Home Builder's show which was held at the end of January in Las Vegas.

"The Nationals celebrate innovation, creativity and originality in the housing industry," said NSMC Awards Subcommittee Chair Kelly Ann Zuccarelli. "We are proud to honour these outstanding individuals and companies for their achievements."

The Vincent sold out shortly after its release. The high rise offers luxury living at the VMC including a wide array of hotel-style amenities.

The Rebecca is a new high-rise condominium coming soon to Hamilton.

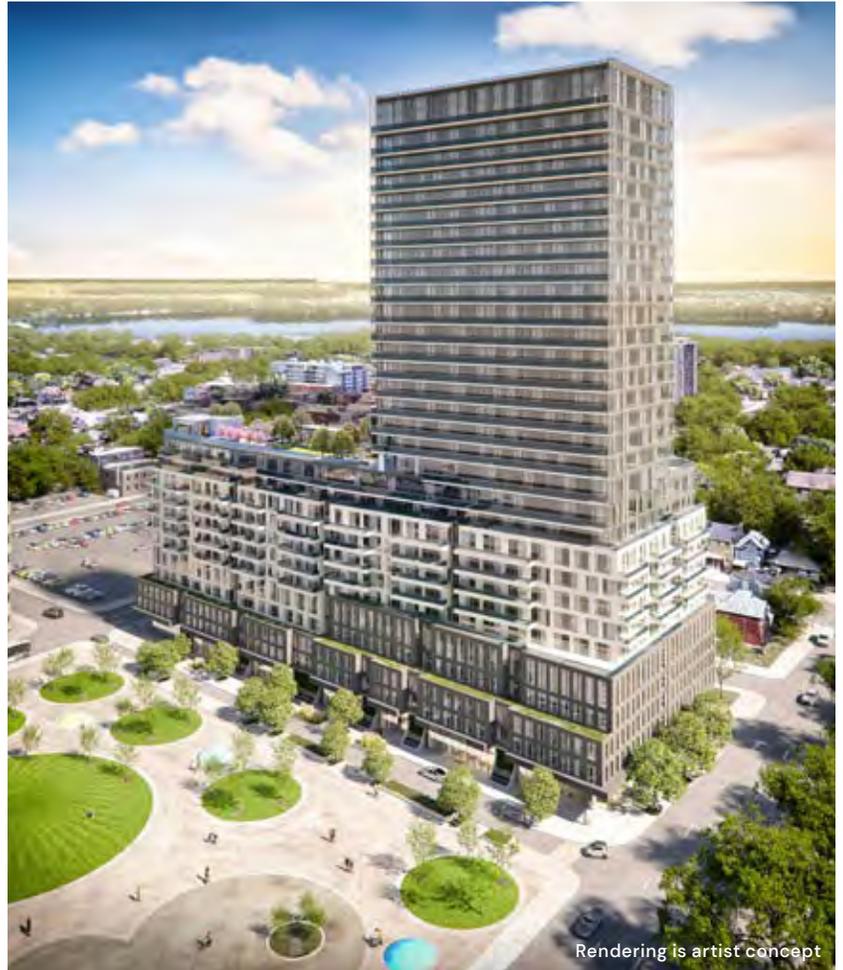

Located across the street from John Rebecca Park, and steps from a growing selection of exceptional dining in the entertainment district on King William, the Rebecca offers refined living in Hamilton's metropolitan centre.

The Rebecca's streetscape has been inspired by European design principles, and its suites and interiors reflect Hamilton's unique cultural footprint. The city has become a leading destination for education, research, healthcare, and advanced manufacturing, and it has long been recognized for its exceptional art, music, and dining.

At the Rebecca, this will all be at your doorstep: event venues, museums, markets, galleries and bistros. And even though you're in the heart of downtown, the city's parks and the local trails and conservation areas aren't far.

Register today to be a part of one of Ontario's new cultural hubs. Visit TheRebecca.ca
